

FISH & GAME OFFICER

The Central South Island Fish and Game Council is on the search for an enthusiastic Fish & Game Officer to join our small Temuka-based team.

If you have an interest in connecting with our anglers and hunters, the wider public and enjoy being out in the waterways and Wetlands of the Central South Island Fish and Game Region, then we would like to invite you to apply for this exciting opportunity.

The following attributes are desirable:

1. A passion for sharing your knowledge of fishing, hunting and the environment.
2. Effective oral and written communication skills.
3. Experience with species monitoring, compliance and interacting with stakeholders.
4. A reasonable working knowledge of fish and game bird management principles.

The successful applicant's primary role will be to ensure angler and hunters are compliant with the laws that sustain the resource and to support anglers and hunters with "how-to" and 'where-to" information via newsletters and other media.

The role has an enviable balance of field and office-based work with opportunities to support other Fish & Game related activities such as wetland and habitat restoration projects, maintain and enhance the angling and hunting experiences of licence holders and engagement with our wider communities.

Applicants for this position must have current New Zealand Residency or a Valid NZ Work Visa.

A full job description is available upon request or by visiting the careers page on our website www.fishandgame.org.nz

Applications close: 8th July 2024
