

Location	title	Decription	Information/Access	Marker Type	Original text [website]
Ngaruroro River Upper Reaches	1.Boyd's Airstrip	Access Point 1 is at Boyd's Airstrip, used by DoC as a landing site for fixed wing aircraft and helicopters. Access is by foot along the river. It is possible to fly into the Boyd and raft down the river to Kuripapango, but care is needed.		Standard Marker	A regularly used designated Department of Conservation landing site for fixed wing aircraft and helicopters located in the Kaimanawa Forest Park on an old river terrace above the river. Access within this park, and the Kaweka Forest Park across the river, provides foot access along the river. It is possible to fly into the Boyd and raft down the river to Kuripapango, but care is needed.
Ngaruroro River Upper Reaches	2.Other Landing Sites (Boyd to Kuripapango)	Access Points 2 are a number of other designated landing sites for helicopters between Boyd's and Kuripapango both within the Kaweka Forest Park. Permission from the commercial operators is required to land or fish from these sites.		Standard Marker	A number of other designated landing sites for helicopters exist between Boyd's and Kuripapango both within the Kaweka Forest Park and privately owned land managed by commercial operators. These include the Department of Conservation Ngaawapurua, Omarukokere, Rocks Ahead, Kiwi Mouth, and Cameron huts. The privately owned areas together with their landing sites are confined to the true right hand side. Permission from the commercial operators is required to land or fish from these sites.	Check Marker Point - Good guess.
Ngaruroro River Upper Reaches	3a.Kuripapango	Access Point 3a is off the Napier-Taihape Road at Kuripapango. Just before the road bridge a picnic site gives access to the river, both upstream towards the Cameron hut with a number of river crossings, and downstream for approximately 1km.		Standard Marker	Access off the Napier-Taihape Road at several points at Kuripapango. Just before the road bridge a picnic site gives access to the river, both upstream towards the Cameron hut with a number of river crossings, and downstream for approximately 1km. The driveway to the Department of Conservation's Robson lodge, alongside the Napier end of the bridge, provides good access to nearly 2km of river downstream of this point. Another picnic area provides access to some pools on the other side of the bridge but slightly upstream. Access for rafts is also available at these points for the keen angler willing to raft out to below Whanawhana.	Regulations required
Ngaruroro River Upper Reaches	3b.Kuripapango	Access Point 3b is off the Napier-Taihape Road at the driveway to the Department of Conservation's Robson lodge, alongside the Napier end of the bridge, provides good access to nearly 2km of river downstream of this point.		Standard Marker		Check Marker Point - Good guess.
Ngaruroro River Upper Reaches	3c.Kuripapango	Access Point 3c is off the Napier-Taihape Road at the picnic area providing access to some pools on the other side of the bridge but slightly upstream. Access for rafts is also available at these points for the keen angler willing to raft out to below Whanawhana.		Standard Marker		Check Marker Point - Good guess.
Ngaruroro River Middle Reaches	4.Whanawhana Road	Access Point 4 turn off Matapiro Road onto Whanawhana Road, then down River Access Road [gravel] to end up alongside the braided section of Ngaruroro River. Foot access in both directions and across the river ilimited by river flow and depth.		Standard Marker	A 500m gravel road leads off Whanawhana Road and ends up alongside the Ngaruroro River. In this area the river has exited from the upper gorge section and is now an open braided river. Foot access in both directions and across the river is only limited by river flow and depth. Access to Whanawhana Road is via Matapiro Road which is off the Napier-Taihape Road.5.

Ngaruroro River Middle Reaches	5.Matapro Road	Access Point 5 is 1km past the junction of Omapare Road a private gravel track leads down to the river. Vehicle access with landowner permission. Please ring the adjacent landowner (Tony Connor 06-87 4-3886 or son 06-87 4-3841).		Standard Marker	One kilometer past the junction of Omapare Road a private gravel track leads down to the river. Vehicle access is available with landowner permission. Please ring the adjacent landowner (Tony Connor 06-87 4-3886 or son 06-87 4-3841) before using this access point.
Ngaruroro River Middle Reaches	6.Maraekakaho Road	Access Point 6 is 200m along Kereru Road from Maraekakaho Road a metal access road leads off to the right to the river. Walking access both upstream and downstream of this point.		Standard Marker	Two hundred metres along Kereru Road from Maraekakaho Road a metal access road leads off to the right to the river. Provides walking access both upstream and downstream of this point.
Ngaruroro River Middle Reaches	7.Ohiti Road	Access Point 7 turn off Matapiro Road onto Ohiti Road and travel approx. 4.5kms along until you reach a gravel vehicle track that leads to the river.		Standard Marker	Approximately 4.5kms along Ohiti Road a gravel vehicle track leads to the river.
Ngaruroro River Middle Reaches	8.Farnhill Bridge (Omahu)	Access Point 8 is a Regional Council access track on the Napier and upstream side of the bridge passes back under the bridge and heads downstream.		Standard Marker	A Regional Council access track on the Napier and upstream side of the bridge passes back under the bridge and heads downstream.
Ngaruroro River Middle Reaches	9.Carrick Road	Access Point 9 is another Regional Council access track providing good access both upstream and downstream to the section of river between SH50 and the expressway. Carrick Road is reached off Omahu Road.		Standard Marker	Another Regional Council access track provides good access both upstream and downstream to the section of river between SH50 and the expressway. Carrick Road is reached off Omahu Road via Twyford, Evans and Nicholl Roads.
Ngaruroro River Middle Reaches	10.Ormond Road	Access Point 10 is reached off Omahu Road, via Ormond Road. Ample parking beside the bridge		Standard Marker	Access to the river is gained off Omahu Road and via Ormond Road.
Ngaruroro River Lower Reaches	11.Chesterhope Bridge (Pakowhai Road)	Access Point 11 is off Pakowhai Road with Regional Council access tracks at both ends of the bridge providing access to the section of the lower river.		Standard Marker	Regional Council access tracks at both ends of the bridge provides access to the section of the lower river.

Ngaruroro River Lower Reaches	12.River Mouth (Waitangi/Awatoto)	Access Point 12 is where the Regional Council provides good access to the joint mouths of the Ngaruroro and Tutaekuri Rivers. Multiple access points available.		Standard Marker	The Regional Council access at this point provides good access to the joint mouths of the Ngaruroro and Tutaekuri Rivers.
Ngaruroro River Tributary - Taruarau River	13.Napier-Talhape Road (Gentle Annie)	Access Point 13 is off the Napier-Talhape Road (Gentle Annie). Most of the land in this area is privately owned and landowner permission is required.		Standard Marker	Most of the land in this area is privately owned and landowner permission is therefore required.
Ngaruroro River Tributary - Taruarau River	14.Comet Road	Access Point 14 drive to the end of Comet Road, within Kaweka Forest Park, and a DoC walking track heads steeply down to the Taruarau River 1 1/2 hours away. There is the option of overnight camping or Shute's hut.		Standard Marker	Drive to the end of Comet Road, within Kaweka Forest Park, and a Department of Conservation walking track heads steeply down to the Taruarau River 1 1/2 hours away. The return trip will take longer. For those keen to stay overnight there is the option of tenting or Shute's hut, a 20 minute walk from the river.
Ngaruroro River Tributary - Ohara/Poporangi Streams	15.Big Hill Road	Access Point 15 is off Kereru and Big Hill Road. The land at this point is privately owned and landowner permission will be required.		Standard Marker	Access off Kereru and Big Hill Road. The land at this point is privately owned and landowner permission will be required.
Ngaruroro River Tributary - Ohara Stream	16.Mangleton Road	Access Point 16 off Mangleton Road park near the bridge. Public access for 3km up the Ohara Stream exists from the road bridge.		Standard Marker	Public access for 3km up the Ohara Stream exists from the road bridge.	